Activists, kin take to streets tomorrow to remember 'desaparecidos'

MANILA, Sept. 25 (AP) — A group of human rights activists and relatives of the "desaparecidos" (disappeared) will take to the streets tomorrow to remember the victims of the 1970s.

The group, which includes the Center for Human Rights and the Philippine Human Rights Foundation, will hold a candlelight vigil at the Manila City Hall at 6 p.m. and a march to the National Heroes Shrine at 7 p.m.

The "desaparecidos" were victims of the military's "Operation Clean Sweep" in the 1970s, a campaign to eliminate communist influence in the Philippines.

Joma Sison arrested; GMA says it's giant step to

By Joma Sison
The arrest of Joma Sison, a prominent Filipino journalist and writer, is a giant step towards the establishment of a free press in the Philippines. Sison, who has been a vocal critic of the government, was arrested on charges of sedition. The arrest is seen as a major blow to the government's efforts to suppress dissent.

Sison, 54, was arrested by police on charges of sedition. He is accused of having written and broadcasted a radio program that was deemed to be seditious. Sison's arrest is seen as a major blow to the government's efforts to suppress dissent.

GMA Senate allies to stop playing of 'Garci' tape

Manila, Aug. 15 (AP) — A coalition of senators and GMA-7 lawmakers on Monday vowed to stop the network from airing a controversial audio recording of former President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo's alleged conversation with a radio personality.

The coalition, led by Sen. Juan Ponce Enrile and GMA-7 Rep. Raul Sison, said they would introduce legislation to prevent the network from broadcasting the so-called "Garci" tape, which is believed to be a recording of a conversation between Arroyo and a radio personality named Garci.

The coalition also said it would demand that the network remove the tape from its archives and destroy all copies of the recording.

Arroyo, who served as president from 2001 to 2010, was accused of being involved in a series of controversies, including the alleged tampering of election results in 2001.

DOYU, chief sued over broadband deal with China's ZTE Corp.

Manila, Aug. 15 (AP) — A lawsuit filed in a Manila court on Monday accused a former official of the Department of Information and Communications Technology (DOYU) of allegedly entering into a sweetheart deal with China's ZTE Corp. for the supply of broadband equipment.

The lawsuit, filed by a group of investors, alleges that DOYU's former chief, a man whose name is not disclosed, entered into a deal with ZTE Corp. for the supply of broadband equipment that was worth millions of dollars.

The lawsuit also alleges that the deal was entered into without proper authorization and that the equipment was of poor quality.

ZTE Corp. is a Chinese telecommunications equipment manufacturer. It has been accused of entering into sweetheart deals with government officials in various countries.

DOYU is a government-owned company that is responsible for the management of the country's information and communications technology infrastructure.

The lawsuit is the latest in a series of legal challenges to the deal between DOYU and ZTE Corp. for the supply of broadband equipment.

UP student's death a mystery

Public administration senior could be hazing victim

MANILA, Philippines—A senior public administration student at the University of the Philippines (UP) died last night, and the death is being treated as a mystery. The student, a 21-year-old male, was found dead in a room at the UP Diliman campus. The police are currently investigating the case, and it is believed that the student may have been a victim of hazing. The student's name has not been released to the public. The incident has caused a stir on campus, and many students are expressing concern for the safety of other students. The university has announced that it will conduct a thorough investigation into the death.

Fires in Quezon City

Tariff, P10 million lost

MANILA, Philippines—A major fire broke out in a warehouse in Quezon City last night, destroying a large amount of goods. The fire started in the early hours of the morning and spread rapidly, forcing firefighters to arrive within minutes. The warehouse was storing a large quantity of goods, including electronics and clothing. The estimated value of the lost goods is P10 million. The cause of the fire is still under investigation, but it is believed that the fire was caused by a faulty electrical system. The incident has caused significant damage to the local economy and has raised concerns about fire safety in industrial areas.

Another longtime aide to Bush resigns

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18 (AP) — A longtime aide to President George W. Bush, who served as his chief of staff from 1993 to 2001, has resigned. The resignation was announced by the White House on Tuesday. The aide, who had been with the president since 1989, was one of the most powerful figures in the White House. His resignation was a surprise to many, as he had been a close confidant of the president. The White House did not immediately disclose the name of the aide or the reasons for his resignation.

THE PHILIPPINE PROPERTY MARKET IS INSULATED FROM THE US SUBPRIME CRISIS, ACCORDING TO A REPORT BY THE PHILIPPINE REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATION (PREA). THE REPORT, WHICH WAS RELEASED IN MAY, STATES THAT THE PHILIPPINE MARKET IS NOT AS VULNERABLE TO THE CRISIS AS THE US MARKET IS. THIS IS BECAUSE THE PHILIPPINE MARKET IS NOT AS DEPENDENT ON US FINANCING AS THE US MARKET IS. INSTEAD, THE PHILIPPINE MARKET IS MORE DEPENDENT ON LOCAL FINANCING, WHICH IS NOT AS AFFECTED BY THE CRISIS.

More than 100 years ago, the first of the great American universities were founded. At that time, the United States was a young nation, and the universities were the only places where students could receive a liberal education. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn about the world and themselves, and to provide a place where they could learn to think for themselves. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good citizens, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good people. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good students, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good teachers. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good leaders, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good followers. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good friends, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good enemies. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good parents, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good children. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good husbands, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good wives. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good fathers, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good mothers. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good brothers, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good sisters. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good sons, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good daughters. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good men, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good women. The universities were founded to provide a place where students could learn to be good Americans, and to provide a place where they could learn to be good world citizens.

The diagram illustrates the experimental setup for studying the effect of polymer solution concentration on film morphology. It shows a cross-section of a polymer film on a substrate. The top layer is labeled 'Polymer solution' and the bottom layer is labeled 'Polymer film'. The substrate is labeled 'Substrate'. The diagram shows the process of polymerization and the resulting morphology of the polymer film.
